Christmas

Christmas has already started at Bishop Lonsdale: the children enjoyed a Pantomime last week; the winter snow scene is in the entrance; advent wreaths are made and Christmas trees decorated. During the next fortnight there will be plenty more Christmas events taking place, each of which have been planned carefully, taking into consideration COVID 19 and the safety of our children, families and staff.

Thank you as always for your continued support.

(Executive Headteacher)

Nativity

The Year Two children will be performing 'Whoop-a-Daisy Angel' This performance will be watched by the children in school and will be filmed and accessible to parents.

Festive Film Night

To allow you some extra time for Christmas shopping we will be hosting two film nights. The cost is £2 (cash) per child and includes snacks and drinks.

Christmas Dinner

If your child normally has a packed lunch but would like a Christmas dinner please contact the school office.

Christmas tattoo/Glitter Face/Face Paint

For an extra bit of Christmas fun please send 50p (cash) for your child to have something festive on their face or hand!

Christmas Cards

If you would like your child to send Christmas cards, the Bishop Lonsdale Post Box will be open from tomorrow (8th December).

Remember to write the name and year group on the envelope.

Christmas Parties and Crafts

The children will be taking part in craft activities with a Winter/Christmas theme and attending parties. This is a fun and meaningful time for children and their friends.

We break up for Christmas at 3.30pm on Wednesday 22nd December

Merry Christmas
